HOT and COLD BATHS W. J. SLAUGHTER,

Some people agree with The Sun's opinions about men and things, and some people don't; but everybody likes to get hold or the newspaper which is never dull and never afraid to speak which is never dull and never a fraid to speak its mind.

Democrats know that for twenty years The Sun has fought in the front line for Democratic principles, never wavering or weakening in its loyalty to the true interests of the arty it serves with feerless intelligence and disinterested vigor. At 'imes opinions have differed as to the best means of aecomplishing the common purpose; it is not The Sun's fault if it has seen further into the millstone.

Eighteen hundred and ninety is the year that will probably determine the result of the presidential ele tion of 1882, and terhaps the fortunes of the Democracy for the rest of the century. Victory in 1892 i a duy, and the beginning of 1890 is the best time to start out in company with The Sun.
